WHAT IS SMART MAIL MARKETING?

Smartmail Marketing is the Science of Activation™. Using Smartmail Marketing, you can find new customers and increase the value of your existing ones—a more intelligent approach to direct mail, now referred to as personalized mail.

Inspire more customers to action with a potent mix of physical experience, data and connectivity. The Smartmail MarketingTM approach blends these three powerful elements, proven to make your marketing mix more relevant and more engaging.

PHYSICALITY

In a digitally connected world, physicality is essential to smarter activation.

Delivering physical brand experiences has a stronger impact on emotional memory and motivates behaviour because it puts the brand directly in the customer's hands and drives action.

DATA

Smarter targeting balances reach with precision to deliver relevance, value and personalization that increases interest and activation.

CONNECTIVITY

Is the ability to create stronger connections across media touch-points. Using the power of physicality to amplify activations and drive an overall positive brand and customer experience will yield higher customer returns.

POSTAL CODE TARGETING

The Postal Code Targeting service is an effective direct marketing medium that offers you the ability to target a specific geographic or demographic profile at the Postal Code level. Postal Code Targeting is a standard machineable mail item with a unique 2D barcode printed on each mail item.

Postal Code Targeting is an acquisition solution, targeting your high value prospects within a defined geographic area, at every point of call (houses, apartments, businesses) for a postal code. Postal Code Targeting can be used to create a targeted campaign as it provides geographic, demographic and lifestyle information. This service allows you to create a data file of potential customers that resembles your existing customers or target audience, driving a better return on investment. Postal Code Targeting is ideal when producing quick-to-market campaigns that are both cost-effective and highly-targeted.

- Generate Powerful Results Use postal code data to identify, target, and market directly to your ideal customers.
- Maximize Marketing ROI Optimize acquisition dollars by suppressing existing customers from campaigns.
- Enrich Your Own Data Strengthen your data by coupling it with Canada Post data for refined targeting to your best prospects.
- Drive Action Send unique offers and promotions to households most inclined to respond.

CUSTOMIZED POSTAL INDICIA

Communicate with your audience before they even open the envelope. Trigger interest and make your message stand out by utilizing the free customized Postal Indicia feature from Canada Post.

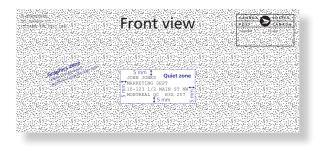

Build loyalty and strengthen customer relations by adding a personal touch with the customized Postal Indicia, making your mail easily recognizable and keeping your brand top of mind.

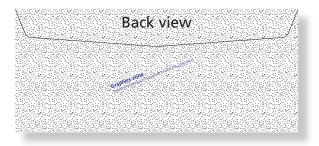

Contact Burke to have your customized indicia designed by our experienced and mail-savvy creative team.

CUSTOM ENVELOPES

In many cases, the envelope is the first piece of branding your customer will see. It's easy to make your brand stand out in the mail by adding some creative flair to your envelope design. However, there are limitations to the amount of artwork that can be added to your envelope. There are three small quiet zones on all envelopes, but there is still more than enough room to make your envelope pop!
